Richard has gone above and beyond organics, placing great value on soil fertility and plant nutrition. We utilize a system of cover cropping and applications of compost and minerals to promote healthy, mineral-balanced soils, which result in vegetables with exceptional flavor and nutrition. We plant and maintain a year-round habitat for songbirds, bats, bees and beneficial insects to become our allies in pest control. We have been growing for CSA for over 20 years. We offer a long delivery season, May through December. We offer a variety of vegetable share options including Full Season, Every-Other-Week and Peak Season and Flex share options. In addition to vegetable shares, we also offer a fruit share featuring outstanding fruit produced by certified organic growers across North America; certified organic, grass-fed Angus beef and pastured pork; and Fair Trade, certified organic Kickapoo Coffee, roasted locally just before delivery!

Ashley is a 4th generation produce farmer and Jason is the 3rd generation to farm the land. Our farm is our way of life; sharing the vegetables with friends and family and also our local community is what brings us happiness. We are all natural grown we do not use anything that would harm the earth or our family and friends. This program will help not only our farm but our family to thrive. We have some fun value added things in our CSA boxes: Our Pure Maple syrup, raspberries in late June and farm fresh brown &amp; white eggs, jams &amp; jellies, flowers and herbs!

MoonRise farm is a 25 member CSA located in the hills of Nelson, WI. We're on our second season here, and working hard to provide fresh, naturally grown food. We grow a wide variety of vegetables, herbs, flowers, some fruits (still planting perennials), and raise a small flock of chickens. We have also planted a large plot of garlic, including four different varieties that will be available for sale in bulk mid-late summer. For more information about the farm and to see pictures of a typical box, check out Facebook and LocalHarvest. Payment options are available. Let me, help you, by helping me!

Our mission has always been to re-connect people to the land, their food and each other. All members are given the opportunity to come out and help produce the food they eat! Kids are always welcome at the farm too! Our CSA is unique as the only "you pick" customizable CSA in the area. That means that each week you get to choose over half the items in your box! We also provide a credit for vacation weeks so that you can purchase additional food at a later date. In addition to about 60 different vegetables, we have raspberries, blueberries, strawberries, plums, apples and melons. Medicinal herb products are also available to purchase.
